

Life changing

What does Calvert Trust do?

We offer a unique, life changing opportunity for disabled people of all ages and abilities to test their boundaries and go beyond them.

At Calvert Trust Exmoor disabled people can take part in fun and challenging outdoor activities such as abseiling, canoeing, archery, climbing, and cycling, together with their families and friends.

In a haven where nobody judges, points or stares, visitors can enjoy an experience which brings immediate and long lasting positive changes to their lives.

“We never felt so accepted as a family – we didn’t have to explain our daughter’s behaviour to anyone.”

Why we need your help

It costs over £1million a year to run our accessible activity centre. We have to make a charge to our visitors, but what we charge in no way covers the total running costs.

Being disabled is expensive. We raised over £120,000 for subsidised breaks for those in financial hardship in 2011.

We have to raise a further £50,000 each year to replace essential equipment.

We could not offer this life changing experience without the help we receive from voluntary contributions.

Thank-you.

“Thank you so much, what we have achieved we never dreamt was possible.”

It's your support that counts

Here's how you can help

“ I found friends! ”

One-off donations DO make a difference

30 people giving £10 would mean that we could purchase a specialised buoyancy aid for the therapy pool.

50 people giving £15 would enable us to purchase a new saddle and harness for one of the Calvert horses.

Regular giving enables us to plan further ahead

75 people giving £5 a month for a year would raise £4,500 which would support a group of 24 on a 4 night, mid season activity break.

Will Power

You can make a gift in your will which will enable more disabled people to benefit from the Calvert Experience in the future.
